

"It Was Necessary": Melinda Gates Opens Up About Her Divorce

Melinda French Gates has opened up on her 2021 divorce from Microsoft co-founder Bill Gates, calling the split "necessary." Ms French Gates' response came weeks after her billionaire ex-husband said that their separation was the greatest regret of his life.

Israel Offers 45-Day Ceasefire But With A Hostage Release Demand: Hamas

GAZA CITY: Hamas said Monday that Israel has offered a 45-day ceasefire if it releases half of the remaining hostages held in Gaza, which the United Nations said is now in the grip of its worst humanitarian crisis since the start of the war.

ralling out of control with no aid entering the territory for weeks and conditions rapidly deteriorating. Israel, fighting in Gaza since the October 7, 2023 Hamas attacks, resumed operations in the Palestinian territory in March after the collapse of a two-month-old ceasefire amid differences over the next phase.

Chinese Diplomat Claims White House Press Secretary's Dress Is 'Made In China', Internet Reacts

The US-China trade war has spilled onto social media, with Chinese supporters aiming at the US. The latest target is White House press secretary Karoline Leavitt, who faced backlash after wearing a dress reportedly made in China.

"Always Buying Missiles": Trump Blames Zelensky For "Millions" Of Deaths In Ukraine War

WASHINGTON: US President Donald Trump resumed his attempts Monday to blame Ukrainian leader Volodymyr Zelensky for Russia's invasion, falsely accusing him of responsibility for "millions" of deaths.

war against somebody that's 20 times your size, and then hope that people give you some missiles." Ukraine war was possible, despite Ukrainian accusations that Moscow is stalling.

Explained: What Donald Trump Wants From US Universities, Why The Crackdown

WASHINGTON, UNITED STATES: Donald Trump's crackdown on top universities in the United States has taken a more aggressive stance within three months of the Republican leader taking office for the second term.

are the demands Trump wants from US universities: Eliminating diversity programs: Trump has complained about "racial discrimination" in higher education, suggesting universities were increasingly hostile to white students.

Israel's war in Gaza, with some resulting in violent clashes involving police and pro-Israel counter-protesters. Trump and other Republicans have accused the activists of supporting Hamas.

Who Is Mohsen Mahdawi, Palestinian Student Detained At Citizenship Interview

A Palestinian student at Columbia University has become the second individual from the institution in recent weeks to be detained by US immigration authorities.

of "non-violence and empathy as a central tenet of his religion." Allegations Of Political Targeting Mr Mahdawi's detention was not just bureaucratic but retaliatory in nature, according to a filing reported by Forbes.

US Citizen Mistakenly Told To 'Leave' Country, She Is Immigration Lawyer

A Massachusetts immigration attorney was taken aback when she was told by President Donald Trump's administration to leave the country within seven days.

Abdullah Badawi, Former Malaysian Prime Minister, Dies at 85

KUALA LUMPUR: Former Malaysian prime minister Abdullah Ahmad Badawi, who promised reforms after taking over from his iron-fisted predecessor Mahathir Mohamad but was criticised for lacklustre leadership, has died, his family said.

"Set An Example": Barack Obama As Harvard Rejects Trump's Demands

WASHINGTON: Former US President Barack Obama on Tuesday said Harvard University has "set an example" by rejecting President Donald Trump administration's demands to limit activism on campus.

How Harvard Reacted To Trump's Diktat That Led To Fund Freeze

MASSACHUSETTS, COURT: Further cementing the university's position, Harvard's president Alan Garber addressed the campus community directly to emphasize the gravity of the situation and its broader implications on higher education and writing.