In an interview with India Today, Sara Ali Khan was asked whether she would consider marrying a crick-eter to which she said that profession does not matter to her as long as her partner matches on mental and intellectual level. She, however, jokingly mentioned that she would not marry a doctor maybe because the person would run away. The actress was quoted saying, "But you know the truth is that jokes apart, you will need to match me on the mental and intellectual level. And if you can do that, I think it's great, wow but I think that would matter to me much, much more (than the profession)." She further also mentioned that she hasn't found her Mr Right as yet. With 'almost assurity' she mentioned that she has not met anvone so far with whom she would want to spend her life.

This comes amidst rumours of her alleged connection with cricketer Shubman Gill. There were rumours doing the rounds of gossip mills that there was something brewing between the two. It all started with a video of the two having dinner together went viral.

Mouni Roy and her husband Suraj Nambiar launched their first-ever restaurant, Badmaash in Mumbai's Andheri on May 26. The couple hosted a party just a few days after the restaurant's opening to celebrate the joyous occasion. The grand launch event was attended by some prominent celebrities of B-town, including Disha Patani, Tejasswi Prakash, and her partner Karan Kundrra, Ankita Lokhande, and Mandira Bedi. From exquisite and "progressive" Indian dishes to an ambience that screams rant. It claims that it serves,

Away from the hustle and bustle of Mumbai, Badmaash welcomes you with a warm vibe, decorated with mellow yellow lights. While some areas boast pretty pink-embroidered, hanging lanterns, in other regions, lights are fixated amongst tree leaves. Earthy textures have played a key role in bringing out the tropical atmosphere.
