stance. By invoking the emotional imagery of protecting the dignity of Indian women and the symbolism of Sindoor - a traditional mark of marital honour - he underscored the personal and national impact of terrorism.The Prime Minister's words reflect a broader narrative of assertiveness and resilience, positioning India as a nation that no longer tolerates threats or aggression. His message was clear: India will respond swiftly and decisively to any act of terror, and it will do so with pride, strength, and unity. On the historic occasion of Hyderabad Liberation Day, Modi reflected on the iron will of Sardar Patel, whose leadership led the nation's forces to liberate Hyderabad from years of oppression. Modi emphasised the significance of this event in strengthening India's unity and pledged that such sacrifices and valour continue to inspire every citizen to dedicate themselves to the country. The Prime Minister also inaugurated new women-focused schemes aimed at enhancing health and well-being at the grassroots level. He also launched PM MITRA Park, a step towards empowering women and supporting community development. Modi's speech underscored a vision of progress rooted in cultural pride, security, and social welfare.

He said the bridge will restore the connectivity between Ramban, Sangaldan, Gool and surrounding areas, ensuring uninterrupted access to essential supplies, medical assistance, and emergency services. India has overcome previous slow growth to become one of the world's fastest-growing economies, he said. The Lieutenant Governor said peace is essential for development, and peace can only be achieved by completely dismantling terror ecosystem. "The people from all sections of society must realise that those who provide ideological and financial support for terrorism, create false narratives are dangerous to peace and development."Viksit Bharat" requires a "Viksit Jammu Kashmir", which can only be achieved when economic benefits reach the poor and the common man, and not only to handful of persons. On this occasion, we must also introspect on these important issues," the Lieutenant Governor said.The Lieutenant Governor called for a widespread awareness campaign using various platforms to encourage public participation and leveraging Self-Help Groups (SHGs) and Anganwadi centres for dissemination of detailed information on health camp schedules and services.The Lieutenant Governor inaugurated a health camp to mark the occasion. He also distributed medical aids and handed over sanction letters under Mission YUVA among beneficiaries.
